These talks offer the chance to explore the nature of silent prayer and the value for today's world of solitude, stillness, simplicity and contemplative service.

Each meeting will be led by someone committed to the contemplative life; each will include one or more talks, and a period devoted to silent prayer.

Some speakers will describe particular approaches to silent prayer; others will speak more generally; but a number of groups seeking to rediscover the Christian contemplative tradition (e.g. the World Community for Christian Meditation, Contemplative Outreach, and the Julian Meetings) have been invited to set up book and information stands where you can find out more about what they offer.

The speakers for 2010-011:

Fr Daniel O'Leary is a parish priest, teacher, and author of 12 books. His current passion and project is about the recovery of the sacramental imagination in all our spiritual endeavours.

Fr Laurence Freeman OSB was taught meditation by John Main, and became his successor as the spiritual guide of The World Community for Christian Meditation.

Fr Robert Kennedy SJ is a theologian and a licensed psychoanalyst. Active in interfaith work, he is one of several practicing Catholic men and women who have found meaning and deep reverence in the practice of Zen, which he teaches to persons of all faiths.

Dr Cynthia Bourgeault is an author, lecturer, hermit, and scholar who has worked closely with Fr Thomas Keating to develop the practice of Centering Prayer.
